DANIEL A. FRISHBERGS' MOTION FOR A ORDER TO SHORTEN
NOTICE OF DANIEL A. FRISHBERGS' AMENDED MOTION TO COMPEL INSIDER CLAWBACKS BY THE DEBTORS /UCC

I move for an order, substantially in the form attached as Exhibit A, authorizing myself, Daniel A. Frishberg, to present Daniel A. Frishbergs' Motion For A Order To Shorten Notice Of Daniel A. Frishbergs' Motion To The Debtors To Institute Significant Cost Cutting Measures [Dkt. 1041] (the "Cost Cutting Motion") on shortened notice so that it may be heard at the October 20, 2022 hearing. In support of this Motion, Daniel A. Frishberg respectfully states and represents as follows:

² The Debtors in these chapter 11 cases, along with the last four digits of each Debtor's federal tax identification number, are: Celsius Network LLC (2148); Celsius KeyFi LLC (4414); Celsius Lending LLC (8417); Celsius Mining LLC (1387); Celsius Network Inc. (1219); Celsius Network Limited (8554); Celsius Networks Lending LLC (3390); and Celsius US Holding LLC (7956). The location of Debtor Celsius Network LLC's principal place of business and the Debtors' service address in these chapter 11 cases is 121 River Street, PH05, Hoboken, New Jersey 07030.

Authority

This Motion is made pursuant to the Case Management Order, which provides that a party may seek relief from this Court on an expedited basis.

Background

1. On October 10th 2022, Daniel A. Frishberg sent a copy of the “Cost Cutting Motion” to the UCC’s counsel. The motion had the suggested hearing date/objection deadline at the top. Their response is attached in Exhibit B.
2. On October 11th, 2022, at or around 1:28 a.m EST; Daniel A. Frishberg sent notice of his motion to all relevant parties including Chambers, the UCC, the Debtors, and the US Trustee.
3. On October 11th, 2022, at or around 8:52 p.m EST; Daniel A. Frishberg emailed the Debtors’ counsel and they said “We will be on the lookout for your motions and note your request to have them heard at the October 20th hearing.”
4. On October 18th, 2022, at or around 2 a.m EST; Daniel A. Frishberg emailed Your Honor’s Chambers, several attorneys for the Debtors, several attorneys for the UCC and the US Trustee to seek an update to see if the Motions will be heard at the hearing on the 20th of October, 2022.
5. On October 18th, 2022, at 7:24 a.m EST, counsel for the UCC responded to the email thread, and requested that the court delay setting a hearing date until the UCC can confer with the Debtors counsel.

6. On October 18th, 2022, at 1:38 p.m EST, the Debtors counsel responded (after removing the US Trustee/Chambers) and said that they do not consent to the Motions being heard on the 20th.
7. On October 18th, 2022, at 6:47 p.m EST, Daniel A. Frishberg replied to the email, stating that due to the urgent nature (the over $1.525m being spent daily and the extremely high risk of further dissipation of funds) that he requests the Motions be heard on the October 20th, 2022 hearing. He also stated again that no one had raised any issues with the Motions or timing of them until that day, even though they had over a week to do so.
8. 10. On October 18th, 2022, at 7:34 p.m EST, counsel for the UCC replied, and stated that the hearing should be delayed until November 1st to allow the various parties of interest to consider, and potentially respond to the issues at hand. It should be noted that it took Daniel A. Frishberg less than 3 days to write these Motions, and the parties (with large, expensive legal teams) would have multiple times that time to review the Motions. It should also be noted that the UCC has claimed for months that they are working to cut costs and on insider clawbacks, yet they are attempting to delay (and potentially object to) the Motions that would do just that.
9. 11. On October 18th, 2022, at 8:04 p.m EST, the Debtors counsel replied, and stated that the Motions should be heard at the November 1st, 2022 hearing (presumably due to a short notice). It should be noted that the Debtors counsel (to the best of my knowledge) has bragged about working through the entire night in this very case, in Your Honor's courtroom. It should also be noted that both the UCC's and Debtor's counsel are some of the largest, and best law firms in the world, with their resources (and the large amount of money they are being paid), 10 days notice should be sufficient, in my opinion, for such an urgent matter.

RELIEF REQUESTED

Due to the estate burning more than $1.5 million in customer funds PER DAY, this motion is urgent. The UCC has a fiduciary duty to all Unsecured Creditors, to act in their interests, yet, the UCC is opposing consideration of my Motion on October 20th. My Motion would significantly help all creditors by reducing the expenses of the estate significantly. This goes directly against their fiduciary duties, and I believe that the Examiner should investigate this breach. Both the Debtors and the UCC are represented by some of the largest and best law firms in the world, and they are being paid extremely well, so I think they should be more than capable of making any argument and responding to my motions in the about 10 days they had. If I can write the Motion in less than 3 days (while being in class and a full time student), I am sure some of the best (and best paid) lawyers in the world, with their large law firms and almost limitless resources can file an excellent response in ~10 days.

Bankruptcy Rule 9006(c) provides that the Court, for cause shown, may in its discretion (with or without motion or notice) reduce a period in which an act is required to be performed. Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9006(c) (“[T]he court for cause shown may in its discretion with or without motion or notice order the [notice] period reduced.”). See also Local Bankr. R. 9006-1 (authorizing the Court, for cause shown, to reduce any notice period); 11 U.S.C. § 105(a) (providing that the Court “may issue any order, process, or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions” of the Bankruptcy Code); 11 U.S.C. § 102(1) (explaining that the phrase “after notice and a hearing” requires only such notice and opportunity for a hearing as may be appropriate under the circumstances). Thus, the Court has the authority to determine appropriate notice for conducting a hearing on the matters presented by me, in my Motions.

Exhibit A:

Upon the Daniel A. Frishberg’s Motion to Shorten Notice on on his Motion To Compel The Debtors to Institute Significant Cost Cutting Measures (the “Motion”); the Court having reviewed the record and finding that notice of the Motion was good and sufficient under the circumstances; the Court having reviewed the Motion and finding good cause to grant the Motion, it is ORDERED:

1. The Motion is granted to the extent provided herein.
2. Mr. Frishberg may present his Motion To Compel The Debtors To Institute Significant Cost Cutting Measures for hearing, on shortened notice, at the October 20, 2022 hearing.
3. This Court shall retain jurisdiction to resolve any disputes arising or related to this Order including any discovery disputes that may arise between or among the parties and to interpret, implement, and enforce the provisions of this Order.

Exhibit B³:

Daniel,

Thank you for your note. We are not able to comment on specific pleadings you might file.

We will note, however, that (1) the Committee has worked extensively to cut costs and provide creditors with better information regarding the costs of these cases and (2) the Committee has made it clear that it is investigating—and will take action to preserve—claims and causes of
